CHURCH MEMORIALS

Church Altar Candle in memory of Gustavo Haro requested by Armando Haro.

Dear Friends in Christ:

In the Gospel Reading from St. Matthew, we hear about 'The Parable of Ten Virgins,' where the Evangelist changes the emphasis on the theme of eternal life to stress the necessity of being awake and prepared for the Lord's coming and the definitive establishment of the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus tells of a division between those who prepare themselves for the patient wait for the proverbial spouse and those who do not. He speaks of a lost opportunity as those who should have been ready are shut out.

Jesus tells this parable to impress his followers of the supreme need of vigilance and watchfulness. The parable shows that some of his followers, who have been chosen to play a special role in the nuptials of Christ with his Church, will forfeit their place at the eternal nuptials in heaven through their carelessness and not positive malice. The image Jesus gave of marriage regarding the Kingdom of Heaven was easily understood by his listeners.

The bridegroom is Christ, the Lord. The bride is the Church. The ten virgins represent the totality of the members of the Church, as they await the Lord's coming. On the basis of what happens later on, five are described as wise or sensible and five as foolish. Their wisdom here consists in their taking prudent steps to do what they need to do in order to come face to face with their Lord. The lamps, which all the virgins had, could represent faith which all Christians have. The oil, which some of them had and others did not, would then represent good works. A lamp without oil is like faith without good works - dead and useless.

Our preparedness to meet the Lord is something that is ultimately only our responsibility. No one can say 'Yes' to Christ on my behalf. So, while the foolish virgins went off to make up for lost and wasted time, those who were ready went into the wedding hall. Then the door was locked. All are invited, but not all get inside. All are called but few are among the chosen ones. This is not due to any partiality on the bridegroom's part but because of the tardiness of some in responding to the invitation. The locked door means that access to Jesus is not automatic or to be altogether taken for granted. And that is precisely the warning in today's parable - "Therefore, stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour."

Saint Andrew Dung-Lac
Feast Day: November 24

Andrew Dung-Lac was a Catholic convert. He was ordained as a priest and was one of the 117 Catholics martyred in Vietnam between 1820 and 1862. Other members of his group of companions died for Christ in the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries. These martyrs received beatification during four different occasions between 1900 and 1951. All were canonized by Saint John Paul II.

Christianity came to Vietnam through the Portuguese. Jesuits opened the first permanent mission at Da Nang in 1615. They ministered to Japanese Catholics who had been driven from Japan. Severe persecutions were launched at least three times in the 19th century. During the six decades after 1820, between 100,000 and 300,000 Catholics were killed or subjected to great hardship. Foreign missionaries martyred in the first wave included priests of the Paris Mission Society, and Spanish Dominican priests and tertiaries.

In 1832, Emperor Minh-Mang banned all foreign missionaries, and tried to make all Vietnamese deny their faith by trampling on a crucifix. Like the priest-holes in Ireland during English persecution, many hiding places were offered in homes of the faithful. Persecution broke out again in 1847, when the emperor suspected foreign missionaries and Vietnamese Christians of sympathizing with a rebellion led by one of his sons.

The last of the martyrs were 17 laypersons, one of them a 9-year-old, executed in 1862. That year a treaty with France guaranteed religious freedom to Catholics, but it did not help to stop the persecution.

By 1954, there were over a million Catholics in the north; about seven percent of the population. Buddhists represented about 60 percent. Persistent persecution forced more than 670,000 Catholics to abandon lands, homes and possessions and flee to the south. In 1964, there were still 833,000 Catholics in the north, but many were in prison. In the south, Catholics were enjoying the first decade of religious freedom in centuries, their numbers swelled by refugees. During the Vietnamese war, Catholics again suffered in the north, and again moved to the south in great numbers. Now reunited, the entire country is under Communist rule.

Most of us still remember the War in Vietnam very clearly, and some of the memories are bitter. Many of us had loved ones who served in the armed forces there and were either killed or badly wounded. We continue to hear the question, "Why were we there?", and it remains a difficult one. These Saints can help us to reflect on the fact that people in every nation bear the cross of persecution for their Catholic faith and need our prayers.

KIDNEY NEEDED

There is a parishioner in our parish who needs, most of all, your prayers, but who is in need of a kidney. Sometimes just knowing of a need or talking about it, brings amazing results. But, above all, prayers are priceless. Thank you and God bless you.

2017 BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL In Giving We Receive

After decades of service to our parishes, our diocesan priests have the opportunity to live at Nazareth Village in Chester. A number of our priests reside there while also serving parishes by celebrating Mass. Your gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal helps support Nazareth Village. Your pledge is a great way to recognize the generous gift of their priestly vocation. Please make a gift to the Annual Appeal today as a way of showing thanks.

Gifts, Gifts-What to do with Them

We all have some God given gifts that are special. God gave us these gifts so that we could better serve man and Him. What special gifts do you have? Did God gift you with a clear resonate voice? Did he endow you with a very wonderful gift of generosity? Do you have a strong gift of empathy? Does your gift incline you to service? Whatever your gift is, our parish can put it to serving our God.

Our parish is in need of Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors and persons to participate in the Lazarus Group. You can lend your hands and spirit to the distribution of the Eucharist. You can participate in proclaiming the word of God by serving as a lector. The Lazarus group is unique. Its members participate in the serving of Mass, distribution of Communion, and the proclaiming of the word by serving as a lector at funeral masses. Proclaim your Gifts in His Service! Luke in his gospel said, "For unto whomever much is given, of him shall be much required." Please call the rectory to express your interest in one of these ministries.
